LOT AT AUCTION.

The Times editorially criticizes the Great Eastern, and throws great doubts on her being ablu to fulfill all that has been promised for her. The reseel is pronounced defective in propelling power.

The official correspondence between England and Spain is published in the London timette. Spain declares that she will not continue to hold L'Angiers or any part of the Morocco coast that will given her a superiority that would be dangerous to the navigetion of the straits after a treaty of peace is signed.
